

Michelman Hands Over Reigns of Firm he Founded

Attorney Dana A. Kravetz of Encino-based Michelman & Robinson, LLP has taken over the role of managing partner from firm founder, Sanford L. Michelman.

Kravetz, who was elected to succeed Michelman by the firm's executive committee, has acted as M&R's administrative partner and managing partner of M&R's flagship office in the San Fernando Valley for the past five years.

Kravetz played a "critical role" in the firm's expansion into Sacramento, New York and New Jersey, according to a statement from the firm.

Now, Kravetz will oversee the entire firm's daily operations.

"We elected Dana Kravetz based on his impeccable management record, outstanding leadership skills and his intimate understanding of M&R's identity, goals and future plans for strategic growth," said Mona Z. Hanna, managing partner of the firm's Orange County office. "We are confident that he will continue to lead M&R through the next important and exciting stages of its evolution."

Michelman will remain as chair of the Firm's Executive Committee. He will focus and assist in developing the Firm's long term strategy for future growth and enhancing its current practice areas.
